Harvest Service

Today is our annual Harvest Service and like last year we are encouraging members to support the work of Edinburgh SE Foodbank which operates from the Blythwood Care Shop at 47 Southhouse Broadway.

All that is donated will be added all the collection from the Liberton Primary Harvest Assembly, and will then be passed on to John Ross and his team to support them in their valuable work.

There will be plates at the doors if you would like to make a financial contribution to support this work.

"How can we remain silent while Christians are being persecuted?"

A meeting held by Patrick Sookhdeo of Barnabas Trust at Charlotte Chapel, Rose Street. The date is 17th November at 2 - 4pm followed by light refreshments.

Church Review

Liberton Northfield have been selected at short notice by Presbytery to take part in a pilot Church Review Scheme, which will replace the previous Quinquennial (5 yearly) Visitation review scheme. We have been selected at short notice to be visited as another church has had to pull out from the pilot due to their minister retiring. Kirk Session members have started working on the paperwork for this review (which is due end of October!), but we would welcome input from everyone in the church, and in particular in planning how we take forward the church in the following areas set out in the review documentation: Worship, Evangelism, Service, Discipleship, and Fellowship. If you would like to get involved in this, then please speak to Alistair Lawson our Session Clerk.
