Wednesday Night Gathering

As I mentioned in my sermon a couple of weeks ago I believe that God wants us to spend more time with Him, praising him and taking time to speak to Him and listen to Him through prayer.

With this thought in mind we are meeting on Wednesday nights throughout the summer months to be open to God and allow Him to show us His purpose and plan for our work and witness within the Community.

This is an open meeting for ALL connected with the church, and if you are able to join us then please be assured of a warm welcome.

TOGETHER we can make a difference for God in OUR COMMUNITY in OUR GENERATION.

Verse 4

Now I hear the call
That echoes down through history

Take up your cross and follow Me
Through every joy and sorrow
My grace is all you’ll need
Trust me in the storm
For I’m the man who calms the sea.”

No fear shall overwhelm me
For Lord, I do believe

The Man Who Calmed The Sea

STUART TOWNEND

Verse 1

See the stricken boat
As it is tossed upon the sea
Hear the fearful cries
That wake the man from Galilee
He stands before the raging
Speaks peace and harmony
Winds and waves obey
He is the man who calmed the sea

Verse 2

Hear among the crowds
A desperate father's anguished plea
"Heal my dying child"
He begs the man from Galilee
With words that banish sorrow
"Don't fear, but just believe Daughter - live again!"
Commands the man who calmed the sea

Bridge 1

And as she stands before them
What joy from agony
He's the Master and the Maker
He's the man who calmed the sea

Verse 3

Feel the bitter pall
That shrouds the hill of Calvary
High upon the cross
There hangs the man from Galilee
The earth it quakes with sorrow
The sky grows dark with grief
All creation mourns
To lose the man who calmed the sea

Bridge 2

But, no, death could not hold Him
The stone is rolled away
For He's the Master and the Maker
He's the man who calmed the sea
