TRY PRAYING

Along with your sheet today you should receive at 'try praying card' encouraging you to pray during this season of Lent leading up to Easter. As the card reminds us we are called to pray 'That God would act, not according to the poverty of what we are or believe, but according to the greatness of who He is and what He can do.'

HELP NEEDED

The churches in SEECAT are currently aiming to start worship services in Ellen's Glen House, on the Carnbee estate. They would be held on a Sunday afternoon, probably on the first or second Sunday of the month, for approximately half an hour. We are currently looking for volunteers to come along, either to participate by doing readings or prayers, or just to be there in a supporting role as part of the group. If you think you could help out, regularly or occasionally, please contact Fiona Devoy on 666-1044 or by e-mail, fdevoy@yahoo.com.

CAMERON TOLL CHAPLAINCY EASTER EGG CAMPAIGN

For the third year running CTC has been invited to assist Cameron Toll with their Easter egg campaign, and we would like your help. Last year we were delighted to distribute 100 eggs to Barnardo's and HomeLink. So we ask you, when you buy one Easter egg please buy another and donate it in the big box outside Sainsbury's from Monday 11th March until Wednesday 27th March. Many thanks for your continued help and prayers.

'Have you thought about becoming a church member?'

Towards the end of last year we announced that we were planning to run a short course looking at the vows involved in joining the church, and thus providing the opportunity for anyone interested in joining the church, to find out more about what is involved in the process.

The group will meet on Sundays after the morning service for around one hour, and we are planning to commence the course TODAY.

If you interested then why not come along – Rest assured there is a place waiting just for YOU.
