Visitation

Do you know of anyone associated with the church who is housebound, or recently out of hospital or in some other need who would benefit from a visit at home? Then please let Rachael Whyte or Irene Hoy know, and they will arrange for one of our visitation team to make contact with the person. Or maybe you have noticed that someone who usually sits near you in church has unexpectedly been missing for a few weeks. Again if you could let Rachael or Irene know or speak to someone on the door.

The next service at Ellen's Glen House will be at 2.30pm on Sunday, 5th May, in the upstairs dining room. All are welcome to come and support this short worship service (30 minutes) and to meet the residents. Contact Fiona Devoy on 666-1004 for additional information.

Heart and Soul 2013, 19th May – Stewarding

Preparations are well in hand for the Heart and Soul event this year. In regard to stewarding, letters have been sent to people who have assisted in previous years. The closing date for applications is close. However we still require stewards.

Our experience has been that stewards have been recruited from around the country although the majority have lived close to Edinburgh. As a Presbytery close to the event I would appreciate if the need for stewards could be publicised within your area. Anyone interested could be directed to the website www.heartandsoul2013.org.uk and apply online.

I realise that you will have many issues you seek to publicise within the congregations in your area. However your assistance in publicising this event would be greatly appreciated. It is important that we have sufficient stewards to ensure that this opportunity to 'showcase' our Church runs as smoothly as possible and those who attend really enjoy their time at Heart and Soul. I have attached a few of the comments received from stewards who were involved last year.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely

James Maguire | Chief Steward
