Heart and Soul 2013 - Sunday 19th May, 1 - 6pm, in Princes Street Gardens

Information from the Heart and Soul web site on this exciting event in the heart of our city is as follows:

In recognition of the 1450th anniversary of Columba landing on Iona, Heart and Soul 2013 will be inspired by Celtic Christianity, with all the richness of its themes: hospitality, pilgrimage, journeying, deep peace – healing and wholeness, creation and its care, celebrating the good earth, contemplative prayer, Trinity, representing Christ to the world, inclusive community, Christ in the stranger's guise, rhythm of the seasons, prophecy, soul-friends, being 'on the edge'. And it's exciting that Sunday 19th May also coincides with Pentecost on the church calendar.

So come along with your congregation and bring your friends to celebrate the life of the Church in Princes Street Gardens. Come and learn more about how God is at work in His Church. Come and sing for all you're worth along with thousands of others at closing worship.
Sounds great.

Religious Observance in non-denominational schools

On the 3rd June 2013 the City of Edinburgh Petitions Committee will be considering both active petitions concerning religious observance in non-denominational schools, one calling for its removal and another for its retention. At the Presbytery of Edinburgh meeting on the 30th April, congregations are encouraged to support the retention of religious observance in non-denominational schools in Edinburgh by voting on the following web site:
