Festival Outreach

Dear friends at Liberton Northfield Parish Church,

Following on from last year's events - we're delighted to be hosting another festival of Christian music right on the Royal Mile during the festival. The evenings will feature well-known local artists like Steph Macleod, The Exile Band, Beth Coyle, Alan McKinlay, Anthem 33, Selah Corbin, The Royal Foundlings, El Mafrex and others.

Each evening, three bands or artists will play their music and share their faith stories with festival-goers, in a cafe-style environment. A refreshments bar will be available. If you're looking for something to recommend to your congregation for good quality Christian music that is a great opportunity to confidently bring a non-Christian friend along to, this is it.

TRAILBALZER LEADERS AND HELPERS TRAINING

As some of you may already be aware/met, Yvonne McCorkindale supports those who work with children, young people and families within the Presbytery of Edinburgh. Various workshops, events and training are ran throughout the year, across Edinburgh, for all those individuals who are involved with children's ministry. After enquiring about one of the workshops which Yvonne runs, we thought that it would be extremely beneficial for all Trailblazer leaders and helpers, to attend the following workshop on:

WHEN: MONDAY 8th SEPTEMBER 2014

TIME: 19:00hrs – 21:30hrs

WHEN: LIBERTON NORTHFIELD CHURCH

During the workshop we will be exploring:

RELATIONSHIPS

How important are they with the children we interact with? How do we value children? In what ways do we value them?

RESOURCES

What are we using? Is it good? Am I bored with it? Are the children bored with it? What are other folk using? What else is 'out there'?

REFLECTING

What do we need to make us as good as we can be? What do we bring personally to our work with children?

RETHINKING

What is working, what isn't? What do I need to change or add or completely get rid of.

This will be an interactive workshop where we will be invited [but not pressurised] to share with each other, ideas, suggestions and resources and get us thinking.

There will also be hand-outs and resources on display that can be borrowed

HOW TO SIGN UP: Please put your name on the Trailblazer Training poster, which can be found in the friendship hall by Sunday 31st August 2014. This will enable Yvonne to finalise the numbers and work out groups.

If you have any questions about whether you should attend this course or would like to discuss anything further, then please speak to: Carlynn Young, who would be happy to speak to you.

Fully endorsed and supported by Liberton Northfield's Kirk Session.

Our Flower Ministry

Every week flowers brighten up our church because we have a flower ministry. Some people new to our church and also not so new may not know how it operates. Briefly here is how it works, there's a Flower List in the Hall of Friendship (that's the name for the area between the sanctuary and the church hall), simply write your name beside the date on which you want to donate the church flowers. Most people donate church flowers to commemorate dates special to them, such as a birthday, anniversary or the passing of a loved one. Typical donations are around £20 and the money should be given to Evelyn Eadie, usually on the Sunday before the date in question or on the particular Sunday. Evelyn purchases and expertly arranges the flowers in the church. After the service, you'll see several ladies arrange the flowers into bundles. These flowers are then distributed to people, mainly within our parish but this is not a prerequisite, who are ill, house-bound or just in need of encouragement. There's also a 'flower box' for donations, located in the middle of the rear pew.

Thanks for continuing to support this very important ministry.

Referendum

The Scottish Independence Referendum will be held on Thursday 18th September and our church hall will be used for this event. We need to provide a rota of volunteers to man the church from 6.30am until 10.30pm. The rota is in 2 hour slots for volunteer names and is located on the Hall of Friendship notice board. Please add your name to the rota and if you have any questions contact Ian Messer.
